INTRODUCTION

Participating in group discussions on the concept of Professional Code of Conduct / Professional issues/ethics and etiquettes.

Engineering is a process of developing an efficient mechanism that easiest and quickens the work using limited resources and while adopting/learning these ethics and professional etiquette play the most important role, however ethics are principles accepted by society, which also equate to the moral standards of human beings. An engineer with social ethics can help society in a better way.

OBJECTIVE

By performing this activity, we shall be able to:

- To present the discussion in an effective, convincing, and time-bound manner.
- To learn various significant ways of family-level code of conduct that can be easily acquired at the professional level.
- To learn how to describe our opinions and process of thinking in front of team members convincingly and effectively.
- Learn how to perform as team players &also emerge as a leader in a group.

SUMMARY

As described in the introduction, in this activity we were supposed to perform a well-defined and well-structured fruitful group discussion on the topic named, “Code of Conduct that we follow regularly at family level”.

In the group of 21 team members, we shared and discussed those particular traits that everyone is bound to follow at daily routine. Such as,

- Maintaining personal diary regularly
- Spending time with family together daily
- Spending morning time doing Yoga, Meditation

- Having fruitful and healthy discussions amongst family members on current affairs

- Spending time doing stress relief activities other than one's daily chores will not only help to be responsible, independent but also will be one of their stress busters

PURPOSE

Having such kind of activities will not only make us aware of positive and healthy life secrets but also will make us aware of what should be appropriate code of conduct that may be followed daily, and hence will help everyone to learn about professional code of conduct and etiquettes.

OUTCOME

After performing this activity, we are able:

- To figure out profession-specific code of conduct and adherence of code specified
- To able to express opinions verbally and firmly
- To able empathetic to diverse backgrounds and values.

CONCLUSION

Hence, we successfully conducted a group discussion with a fruitful conclusion that can be described as follows:

Every individual participated in an activity shared various code of conduct (daily life traits), and on a similar basis, we concluded with an opinion, being a student, we must follow some good life rules that will help us to enhance our lifestyle and hence we shall be able to connect it with our professional life ethics and rules.
